Assessment
Jason is a talented designer as proven by his past work with avatar-creation and photo-editing tasks. He has a good eye for layout design as well and can do basic html/css templating using own css codes or with css framework as 90gs.

IQ Test Result: 124 – Inspired Inventor

You have an unusually strong balance between verbal and mathematical skills combined with a strength in the visual realm. Your most enduring talent, however, is that your idea center never shuts down. That's what makes you an Inspired Inventor.

Team Roles Result: 83 – Cheerleader

According to your score, you have all that it takes to fulfill the role of Cheerleader in a group. Maintaining a high level of team spirit is important to you. You feel compelled to keep the group motivated as you work together towards a common goal.

Cheerleaders in a team are focused on promoting team spirit, motivation, and a positive attitude within the group. Often energetic and highly excitable, they want all members of the team to feel good about the work they are contributing and to help them feel valued and important. Cheerleaders can put a positive spin on even the most deflating or upsetting turn of events. Just like cheerleaders at a football game, Cheerleaders in a team motivate the rest of the individuals to do their best; they take the energy of the team and direct it to the task at hand. By striving for consensus and collaborative atmosphere, Cheerleaders spawn agreement and a harmony. They take initiative when it comes to promoting group cohesiveness through team exercises and outings.
